FRESH ATROCITIES CALL FOR PROTEST

STATE DEPARTMENT MAKES INQUIRIES AND WILL WRITE MORE LETTERS

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, July 29.—Information of Turkish atrocities upon Armenians more severe than ever leads the State department to consider making representations to the Porte. No reply was received to representations made over a month ago.

The Russians control virtually all Armenian territory. The Armenians were subjected to outrages and many exiled to Mesopotamia and Arabian districts. The mistreatment are regarded as due to the recent military successes of the Russians.

RESCUE-EULA IS LOOKING BETTER

30 degrees, or even less, from the horizontal. At the head of the raise the footwall is flatter than at any other place, but there is a flare in the vein at this point and the hanging is again going up at about 45 degrees. Where the flare starts the vein is five feet in width and all is going to mill.

Near the head of this raise the stain of chlorite is coming into the quartz and here it seems to be also heaviest in black sulphides, while rhodochrosite discoloration is plainly perceptible. From all appearances the vein at this point is making into the largest ore body found this far in the mine.

The winze is frequently inquired about by investors in Rescue. There have been numerous reports sent out to the effect that the vein did not continue downward. The basis for this false report is found in the fact that below the 950 about thirty feet the vein takes another flattening course and at 80 feet depth it is within a very few degrees of being horizontal. As the winze was sunk for the purpose of gaining 100 feet depth and establishing an intermediate, it did not follow the ledge when the dip changed, but continued down in the footwall. However, a raise was put up at right angles to the dip of the vein and picked it up in about 20 feet. The face of the raise is in commercial ore. The narrowest point in the vein below the 950 is two feet, so far as development work has been extended.

The face of the drift is all in ore of profitable grade. Work in the drift will shortly be resumed. Meanwhile the raises will be connected preparatory to stopping and the winze will be continued down about fifteen feet farther, after which a crosscut will be run to the north and east and west drifts started on the intermediate. A heavy compressor is being installed preparatory to doing heavy work on the 11th level.

BEN ROSENTHAL DIES IN SAN FRANCISCO

GOLDFIELD POSTMASTER DIES AFTER AN OPERATION FOR STOMACH CANCER

Benjamin Rosenthal, postmaster of Goldfield, died at 12:30 Thursday morning at Lane's hospital, San Francisco, where he had gone three weeks ago for treatment for cancer of the stomach. The deceased was aware of his critical condition, as he had been advised that the chances for recovery were very slender. The funeral will take place tomorrow in Reno.

Deceased was one of the best known men of the southern country, having been born and reared in Bodie and Hawthorne during the palmy days of those towns. His father owned a hotel at the former place which was moved to Hawthorne. When the railroad was moved from Hawthorne and Tonopah and Goldfield sprang into prominence Rosenthal followed the rush, embarking in the jewelry and drug business in Tonopah and Goldfield under the name of Doane & Rosenthal. In 1906, when the county seat was removed from Hawthorne to Goldfield, Rosenthal was appointed commissioner to succeed Frank Lathrop, resigned, and continued to hold that office for two terms, during which the chief municipal improvements included construction of a stone courthouse and fire station. After serving as commissioner, Rosenthal was appointed deputy county clerk and held that job until named to succeed Postmaster Ed. Collins, who left suddenly for Mexico. He was chairman of the Esmeralda County Democratic committee and one of the most enthusiastic members of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and past grand chancellor of the Domain of Nevada. He also was a member of the Goldfield lodge of Elks. Mr. Rosenthal's mother, brother and sister reside in Reno and another sister, Mrs. W. J. Henley, widow of the late Judge Henley, lives in Goldfield.

Deceased was 48 years of age and leaves a widow who was with him at the time of his death.

McLaughlin and Mrs. Roy Davenport was named to stir up interest among the women voters and try to bring them into membership and call a mass meeting of the new voters at an early day. A committee consisting of Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Henry Schmidt and Mrs. McLaughlin was asked to look after the details of the meeting. Mrs. Anna Owens was selected as representative of the women voters as secretary of the county central committee.

ELECTROCUTED BY THE THIRD RAIL

HUMBLE BURRO PAYS SUDEN PENALTY FOR INQUIRING TURN OF MIND

The mule family is gaining a reputation in Tonopah and if the notoriety keeps up the doings of this wonderful animal will gain publicity in other fields. Within the past two weeks the monarch of the mines, a lofty and haughty long eared beast on the 1300 level in the Belmont, revolted and kicked two Slavonian laborers, resulting in complete knockouts and a victory for the kicker.

A heavy coated burro, a member of the mule order, quite inquisitive and curious, when a prospective meal is in sight, last night wandered inside the battered fence guarding the third rail on the Extension United Railroads, Inc., to partake of an inviting menu of tin cans and a bundle of papers. Observing a nice piece of red flannel beside an unseen enemy, the animal strolled over and took one nibble, and in an instant was sent to meet the King of Burros in the Great Unknown. His electrocution was swift and sure, causing no pain or agony.

The juvenile owner of the electrocuted burro thought that damages were forthcoming, so with a bold heart and heavy feet he stepped into the office to collect some pocket money. His success was only momentary, for a rude rebuff came swift and sudden.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, July 29.—The British blacklist is not intended to go beyond the principals named and there can be no direct injury to American firms, was explained to the State department by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice. He represented there was no idea of blacklisting any neutral firm because of continued trading with any firm on the list. But if the neutral firm acted as a cover for a blacklisted firm the case would be different.
